VISA INTELLIGENCE / VERIFIED TRAVEL ENTRY DATA

Sri Lanka Visa Checklist — India Passport (eVisa Required)

EVISA REQUIRED

Tourist - Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA)

30 days (double-entry permitted from date of first arrival).

LAST VERIFIED
23 Nov 2026

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS / VISA CHECKLIST

1. Obtain an Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA) prior to arrival (ETA is free-of-charge for Indian nationals under the 25.05.2026 scheme).
2. ETA grants a tourist visa valid for 30 days with double-entry permitted from the date of first arrival.
3. If you wish to remain in Sri Lanka beyond 30 days, apply for a visa extension and pay the applicable visa fee.
4. ETA is not required if you hold one of the listed exempt documents (valid Sri Lankan Resident Visa, Permanent Resident Visa, Dual Citizenship Certificate with endorsement, Registration Certificate issued under Section 5(2) with endorsement for passengers below 22 years, a valid Entry Visa, or a valid Landing Endorsement).

Visa fee
ETA processed free-of-charge for nationals of the listed 40 countries (including India) under the scheme effective 25.05.2026. (Note: ETA fees paid prior to 25.05.2026 are non-refundable.)

For minors
A Registration Certificate issued under Section 5(2) of the Citizenship Act with the relevant endorsement in the foreign passport (applicable to passengers below 22 years of age) exempts the holder from the ETA requirement.

Processing / application note
ETA must be obtained prior to arrival. Under the 25.05.2026 scheme the ETA for nationals of the listed 40 countries (including India) is free-of-charge and valid for 30 days; Maldivian nationals receive 90 days. Applicants who paid ETA fees prior to 25.05.2026 will not receive a refund. Extensions beyond the free 30 days require payment of the applicable visa fee.
