Processing / application note

A visa for India may be granted on arrival for up to 60 days. Visas are issued by the Passport and Immigration Office and Mauritius Embassies/Consulates. A visa does not guarantee admission; final decision rests with Immigration Authorities. Passengers arriving without a required visa may be repatriated at the carrier's expense.

Additional notes

Non-citizen visitors must not engage in gainful activities and must be eligible to re-enter their country of origin/residence. If stay is sponsored locally a sworn affidavit from sponsor may be required. For further visa/residence permit matters contact the Passport and Immigration Office (details provided in source).
