Photo requirements

Recent passport-size colour photograph on a light background, facing forward; no dark/reflective glasses or garments concealing the oval of the face. For minors, no part of an adult holding them should appear in the photo.

Financial proof

For 2026: demonstrate €122.10 per person per day (or equivalent) multiplied by number of days and persons travelling, with a minimum of €1,098.90 per person regardless of length of stay. Economic means may be proven by original stamped & signed bank statements, traveller's cheques, credit card with bank statement, up-to-date bank book, or equivalent. Additional documents requested may include ITR (last 2 years), salary slips (last 3 months) and PAN copy. (Official pages also reference previous/alternate guidance on daily/minimum amounts; follow the Consular Office instructions for your application.)

Travel insurance

Travel medical insurance covering repatriation for medical reasons or death and urgent/emergency medical and hospital treatment for the entire stay and for the whole Schengen area; minimum coverage €30,000. Submit the front page of the policy; for multiple-entry visas the insurance must cover the first planned entry and applicant must undertake to insure future trips.

Travel / stay proof

Round-trip flight booking (recommended not to buy tickets before visa decision), confirmed hotel reservation or reservation of organized trip, or a Spanish host invitation issued by the Spanish National Police. Cover letter explaining purpose and detailed itinerary/travel plan.

For minors

If applicant under 18: application form must be signed by parents/legal guardians; submit notarized authorization letter if the minor applies alone or travels without both parents; provide self-attested copies of passports of both parents/legal guardians. At border: minors travelling with an ID and not accompanied by a parent need authorization from one parent.

Processing / application note

Apply in person through the authorised BLS Spain visa centre for this Consular Office. Applications accepted between 6 months and 15 days before travel (seafarers up to 9 months). Biometric data (photo and fingerprints) captured at application (exemptions: under 12 years old or fingerprints taken within last 59 months). Standard decision period: 15 calendar days from submission (may be extended up to 45 days if additional documents or interview required). Visa does not guarantee entry — border authorities may request proof of purpose/means at arrival.

Additional notes

Enter via an authorised border-crossing point and be prepared to present documentation proving identity, purpose of stay, and sufficient financial means. Applicants found to have exhausted their 90/180-day entitlement or subject to an entry ban will be denied entry. Follow specific instructions of the Spanish Consular Office handling your application.
